

› BROADCASTING AND WARNING APPS

About the radio (local radio like Gütersloh VHF 97.5 and 107.5) targeted messages and rules of conduct to be spread. Additionally, can information through transregional broadcasters (WDR) will be broadcast.

Always have a battery-powered radio and spare batteries or a crank radio in the house. A solar radio or car radio can also be used.

Emergency apps like NINA and BIWAPP

The emergency information and news app NINA warns you of dangers throughout Germany and locally and can be downloaded free of charge from the App Store.

The Citizen Info & Warning App (BIWAPP) has been introduced by the district of Gütersloh. BIWAPP is a free smartphone app for warning and informing the population and is triggered in parallel with the warning app NINA. BIWAPP also contains information on how to behave in dangerous situations.

› PRECAUTIONS

How much food should you stock? What else is important? What do you need for a power failure / power outage?

The Federal Office for Civil Protection and Disaster Assistance has published a free guide for the Emergency preparedness and the right action in emergency situations as well as a personal checklist. This can be found on their website at: www.bbk.bund.de.

To ensure that you are prepared for a possible crisis without outside help, please take care of appropriate preparations and supplies in good time and on your own responsibility!

Here you will find a lot of information and useful tips from the Federal Office for Civil Protection and Disaster Assistance:

› EMERGENCY HOTLINES

...are available in the event of a crisis.

In the event of a power outage / power failure, it can lead to phone failures and Mobile network failures. If you have an urgent emergency in this situation where you would otherwise dial 110 or 112 there are several options available to you in addition to the police station.

The emergency hotlines offer:

- Mediation / Transmission of emergency calls / Emergency notifications

Please do not call in order to report that the power (electricity) has failed! This puts unnecessary strain on the lines.
